

The Happiest Day

One July day in 2013, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un visited a mushroom farm.

He made the rounds of a general control room, raw material treatment ground and cultivation ground.

Feasting his eyes on lots of big Pleurotus eryngii sprouting out of substrate bags piled up on the shelves in cultivation room No. 1, he said he was very happy to see them. He repeatedly expressed his satisfaction in cultivation room No. 2.

That day, he was very satisfied with the fact that it would be possible to provide people with larger amounts of mushrooms.
