

Brilliant Name—Democratic People's Republic of Korea

The name of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea began to be known around the world for the first time in August 1946.

The great leader Comrade Kim Il Sung, the founding founder of socialist Korea, gave energetic guidance to the work of making the official name of the country, which is as excellent as the present one, in reflection of the unanimous desires and aspiration of all the Korean people.

He said that the name of the country should be the Democratic People's Republic of Korea as a reflection of the independent, genuinely democratic and people-oriented character of the Republic and the fundamental objective and immediate tasks of the Korean revolution.

Today, the name of the DPRK is demonstrating its dignity and might to the whole world along with the august name of the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un.
