

The Great DPRK

78 years have passed since the glorious Democratic People's Republic of Korea was founded after national liberation.

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un is developing the DPRK into the most powerful and dignified country in the world and a flower garden of all blessings overflowing with the people's pleasure and happiness. True to his sacred leadership, all its people, closely united behind him, are making vigorous advance towards a bright future.